Non-resistance

By Antonia Polck

You may think of non-resistance as an indifferent spiritless yielding to whatever occurs. You may think of it as a teaching fit only for the unfit and as a practice suited only to those who are incapable of self-defence.

If so you think you wholly miss the meaning of the word and of the act. Non-resistance is stronger than resistance; its practice requires more mind capacity than is required for resistance; its appeal is to the divine in you.

You who survive the universes and inhabit eternity should array yourself on the side of all things eternal. A weak person fights and a strong person governs themselves to higher purposes.

We tend to resist more mentally than we do physically. Physically we might feel that we so much respect that we would not engage in a fisticuff or in a cheapening quarrel. Mentally we might resist with a fierceness that has on the temper of your life and on the material of your body an effect more demoralising than that of pugilistic or brawling resistance.

Non-resistance is not the line of least resistance. By following the line of least resistance you may be able temporarily to avoid a responsibility. But no responsibility can be avoided indefinitely. If the thing be disagreeable in contemplation, cease to contemplate it: go out and meet it, serenely non-resistant

The line of least resistance may be the trek of the coward. Non-resistance is the triumphal highway of the hero of the universe – the soul that has won consciousness of its identity, its place is everlastingless.

You resist whatever you oppose, criticize or resent. When you begin to practice non-resistance you find that you have been resisting in more ways than you would have enumerated. You find inconsistencies and contradictions.

Resistance centers on detail; non-resistance accepts the generalisation. If you can agree where you can agree and refrain from considerations of points that you do not accept, you keep unity with the universe. Agreement is feasible when your mind seeks agreement. Always there is ground for agreement. If you do not find that ground grant its presence; agree or withdraw in peace.

Resistance will fret you, throw you out of correspondence with your association. When you are non-resistant your associations are frictionless and your growth is unaccompanied by pain.

Non-resistance is not mere tolerance. It includes none of the assumed superiorities of the personal mind. It is a positiveness that offers no opposition; that does not take account of opposition. Being non-resistant you do not feel yourself of higher grade than others. You do not consider differences; you consider likenesses. You have no enemies because you are not an enemy.

If you are non-resistant towards years, the passing of years will not age you. You continue but you do not grow old.

Our Valued Roots

By Robin Cade

Author and Researcher Robin Cade is undertaking research for his next work investigating the idea of the Golden Rule principle; the idea of living through service rather than for the accumulation of self-wealth and power.

Does it hold that the more meaningful our lives are in terms of the Golden Rule the more productive committed and satisfied people become? Does living a less meaningful life increase the risks of disease, abuse, loneliness, unhappiness and stress?

With so many major decisions now instigated by IT, computers and commercialism is society increasingly on a slippery path with little debate and does leaving a reasonable legacy to future generations mean treating every living thing with respect right now in our own lifetimes?

Whatever your view, Robin would be grateful to hear from anyone with any comments, personal knowledge or experience, on whether giving others respect and fairness, with or without the support of a supernatural / spiritual power, leads to greater fulfilment/ meaningfulness in life.

Robin is happy to try and answer any questions and all e-mails will be acknowledged.

Your life is transferred from time to eternity. States of consciousness come, are succeeded by other states, but you do not die you continue to live .when you are non-resistant toward your good your good runs to meet you. I have found that I never win until I am willing to be without the trophy. I have learned to say to whatever seems worth having "If you do not want me as much as I want you, I do not want you at all. I can do without you and sorrow or not: I will welcome you if you come". Do not let yourself become so important to yourself that you come to consider yourself as the guardian of the morals and the rights of the race. You are to work with all law; but do not be agitated for the sanctity of any law. You know that the spiritual law is never defeated: it operates regardless of your approval or disapproval.

Few criticisms will be made of your faith if you really know your faith and live with it. The world is little interested in what you believe. It is tremendously interested in what your belief causes you to do.

Do not resist persons' opinions of you; do not form opinions of persons that will cause them to resist. If you refrain in these respects, peace will flow from you and to you.

Can you hold yourself harmonious and non-resistant toward apparent injustice directed toward you?

The unjust act ceases to be unjust when you do not accept it by resisting. As you value your peace of mind, your progress, never let yourself be hurt by what anyone does.

Do not let yourself consider retribution, to be self administered or by the law. Do not betray yourself by the reproach "I thought that he was my friend; but he is not, for he has failed me."

Non-resistance is the irresistibility that without hurt delivers you whenever there is a need of deliverance; that wraps you in the shining mantle of God's protecting love; that flings wide for you the portals of the highest heaven; that within the tempest's chant sings the conqueror's anthem. You are heaven's non-resistant all conquering hero.

The Inview (the New View of You)

By Clint Denyer

The Inview is a new dynamic INTERNET show for 3 hours every Sunday night from 7pm to 10pm hosted by Clint Denyer on Facebook Live. www.facebook.com/clint.denyer

Each week the Inview has various guests from all the worlds of Spirituality and beyond, it is a platform created to bring a truth and balance in today's world of madness and manipulation where you have a view to be heard. The show is very topical regarding today's news as well as with news that has been suppressed from mainstream media. The show looks at subject matter full on with the help of all the guests bringing a very strong mix of diverse ideas concepts and views, all this with a huge dose of fun in cosmic guests off the radar. Once a live show has gone out, it is automatically recorded so you can watch it time and again from my Facebook wall.

In the 5 weeks that the show has been going the audience for the Inview has grown and it has shown that it has a role to play in today's turbulent times, the show is public so anyone can view, just go to Clint Denyer Facebook page and connect to it to watch. Very soon the show will be expanded to go out live not just on Face Book but U Tube and Twitch simultaneously, Check It Out.
