Dear WRGN Supporters,

The November edition of the WRGNetwork newsletter contains a full list of the events for the month ahead and an article about mediumship by Dilys Guildford of South Devon.

Reincarnation: many happy returns by Jean Smythe is the title of the latest lecture to be digitised and is freely available on-line, as is the latest addition to the article archive; a piece by Geoff Ward entitled, Spirals the Patterns of Existence.

This month we welcome the Edinburgh Lodge of the Theosophical Society in Scotland to the network and look forward to the broadcasting of a live and on-line lecture by a WRGNetwork speaker.

Walking in the Light of Spirit by Dilys Guildford

Mediumship is a term that describes the different ways by which we can communicate with our guides, spirit helpers and returning loved ones. It encompasses Clairvoyance (clear seeing of spirit), Clairaudience (clear hearing of spirit) and Clairsentience (the clear sensing of spirit and the auric field). The power of clairvoyance may also be experienced through mind linking, trance speaking and Psychometry (mental mediumship or objectively seeing as in the physical plane).

Under certain conditions a medium can be the vehicle for relaying information to the living and they may use one or a mixture of skills to communicate with spirit. Choosing to have a private reading with a medium, will enable them to describe your loved ones, spirit guides, in the other dimensions and also describe visually things around your environment and family, providing valid and valuable help and advice for your life (present and future).

Communication with spirit is often a natural gift that people are born with, interconnected with the six sense, but it can also be developed with practice through correct ways of learning. There are many spiritual development courses and groups that one can enquire about, but often a gentle way to start is through meditation. Meditation may entail no contact with spirit, but trains you to listen to yourself and the inner voice. Working with your own energies and practicing Psychometry (speaking information which comes to you through holding an object such as a photograph, ring, keys, necklace or pen) or learning to read people's auras are other enjoyable and informative ways to learn.

The next step of progression on your spiritual development path would be to learn contact skills and to allow spirit to work with you, through safe practice of grounding and clearing entities after connection. All skills to be learnt in secure groups or workshop time. When working with spirit and energy it is important to be as clear a channel as possible and only to use these abilities for the highest good of all concerned, and with the person's permission.

Enjoy walking your spiritual path with love and light, walking in the light of spirit and universal unity.
