VOLUME 2, ISSUE 3.

March 2007

Dear WRGN Supporters,

March sees the emergence of three new groups; Shaston Dowders in Shaftesbury, the Dream share Circle at Rode and a 5th Dimension Living Discussion Group that is based in Frome.

Another marvellous development to report is the renewal of links and the reciprocal exchange of archive resources with Mark Age who are based in the USA. (www.thenewearth.org).

The March edition of the newsletter contains a full list of the events for the month ahead, an article about Atlantis, reviews of two books (Geopathic Stress and Subtle Energy and Streams of the Soul) and a description of a newly formed network called Transitus.

Astrology and Self Understanding by Zach Matthews and Channelling Pure and Simple by Susan Luffman are the latest lectures to be digitised and added to the on-line digital audio archive. The Spiritual Understanding of Sex (courtesy of Mark Age) is the latest addition to the on-line article archive.

Visit Atlantis - A 3 Dimensional Recreation of a Lost Continent

Historical references (including Plato's detailed description of Atlantis in the ocean opposite the Pillars of Hercules and Gades), evidence from the geological survey of the Azores conducted by Christian O'Brian in 1984 and information gained from maps of the ocean floor have been used to create a 3 dimensional visualisation of Atlantis. This virtual recreation of the lost continent can be viewed at the web site of the Golden Age Project www.goldenageproject.org.uk

It was the law maker and one of the most respected Greek citizens Solon 638-558 BC, who had gained knowledge of Atlantis from Sonchis and other priests of Neith in the Nile delta district of Sais.

Sonchis had much verifiable knowledge to impart to Solon, including the date of the catastrophic end of Atlantis at 9,500 BC, and the date for what would have been a restart of Egyptian and Greek civilisations, either side of 9,000 BC, by a small group of Atlantean survivors that arrives from the west. In the America's they settled from the east.

There is evidence to suggest that the Egyptians viewed the embryonic Greek civilisation and Solon with some humour 'c. 570 BC - O Solon, you Greeks are all young in your minds which hold no store of old belief in a long tradition, no knowledge hoary with age'. Despite this Solon had decided to travel and consult the wisest men in the region, and to write down information from their old history records. Plato subsequently used this work in his dialogues Timaeus and Critias.

The records of Atlantis were passed down in the time honoured ancient Egyptian oral tradition, inscribed on a stele at Sais that was later inspected and confirmed by Crantor, when he checked on the Plato account. Sais was destroyed during Alexander's Macedonian conquest and the stele was lost.

Direct and associated knowledge of Atlantis in the Atlantic appears independently of Plato in pictures, maps, written and oral records, from all over of the world. The deeds of kings on the Egyptian King lists going back 36,525 years, match the known progress of Homo Sapiens, and describe historical events which help fit together and make sense of the story of our ancestors. Thoth the inventor of writing was said to have ruled on an island located in the west. Atlantean survivors are found where they would be expected to have found dry land on the Atlantic coasts.

Only now are our astrophysicists and space scientists recognising the high culture of the archaic world, through the physical structures such as the Great Pyramid, Stonehenge, the Bodmin Moor Astronomical Complex, the Line A Loxodrome in East Anglia, and many other sites world wide, which demonstrate the superb knowledge and practice of observational astronomy in ancient times.

The same specialists are also able to link this knowledge to the cycles of cosmic catastrophe, which were of such great practical concern to our ancestors, and who undertook the building of megalith structures to hide themselves, their valuables and animals from the wrath of god.

Our archaic ancestors had mapped the sky and the globe with extraordinary accuracy, had adopted the Golden Ratio from which they had set up a precise standard unit of measurement, understood the precession of the equinoxes and located the galactic plane and centre – among other great technical achievements.

In constructing the Great Pyramid they left for us their mathematically perfect representation of the Northern Hemisphere, complete with King's Chamber and Queen's Chamber star shafts that recorded the positions of the key north (Alpha Draconis) and south (Zeta Orionis) stars before and after a 10 km comet hit the area of thick (former) north pole ice over the Hudson Bay, at a velocity and low angled trajectory sufficient to move the Earth on its axis by 14 degrees, at a date around 10,500 BC.

The account in the Book of Enoch mentions the earth tilting on its axis during which 'the earth labours and is violently shaken' (1 Enoch LIXV. 1-3). This event led to the largest mass extinctions for 3.5 million years, Noah's flood and the eventual demise of Atlantis.

Enoch is also credited with the Qumran Calendar (described in the Dead Sea Scrolls) that is a mathematically perfect 360 day calendar. The necessary adjustments in time were added by inserting extra days as public holidays, which did not count in the weekly tally. We see the means of counting them in the use of the Aubrey Holes at Stonehenge and a carved stone record at Newgange, and therefore see no reason to doubt the superior accuracy of Egyptian time keeping and dating.

The related scientific disciplines now available to us, linked to common sense, and the more accurate translations of the work of our ancient authors, are revealing a priceless and the clearly benevolent heritage of mankind's existence on a beautiful, but vulnerable planet. Can there be any doubt that we are the children of an advanced civilisation ?

Log on to www.goldenageproject.org.uk to visit Atlantis or email Edmund Marriage through patrickfound@btinternet.com For more information about Atlantis log on to www.atlantisquest.com. A digitised lecture entitled Atlantis the Truth by Nigel Blair can also be downloaded from the Audio Archive.

Book ReviewsGeopathic Stress & Subtle Energy* by Jane Thurnell

The word 'geopathic' literally means suffering or disease of the earth. This is a comprehensive look at this fascinating subject with many case studies from experts in this field. Read about the people who got better by getting their houses 'fixed'. Understand how the author predicted on a TV programme that a man she had never met would suffer with leg or back problems, and that someone in the house probably had migraines. Log on to <http://www.healthandgoodness.com> for more information.

Streams of the Soul* by Craig Downer

A volume of poetry, Streams of the Soul is essentially a book of contemplation, an exercise in mysticism. Somewhat in the nature of a prayer book, the style of the author brings to mind William Blake mixed with a touch of Walt Whitman. Contact Craig Downer ccdowner@yahoo.com for further information.

Transitus – a global network for those with an interest in the field of death, dying, grief and the continuity of consciousness

The Transitus network aims to help release fears and raise awareness about death, dying and the continuity of consciousness both before birth and after death.

The network is also a vehicle for the sharing of information, and the team are committed to developing a resource base and a web site.

In its embryonic form the network consists of groups and individuals that are, based mainly in the South West and London, who have identified themselves as working holistically in this field, but the network is open to anyone who wishes to be part of it.

Should you be interested in attending the day of networking and inspiration planned for March 17th of if you are interested in being involved with the network contact Judith Pidgeon via email at john@pidgeonhouse.freeserve.co.uk or by post to The Martinsey Isle Trust, Ivy Cottage, Bath Road, Sturminster Newton, Dorset.

If you wish to promote an event, submit a literary contribution to the newsletter or you require further information about the WRGNetwork email Robert on r.mulliss@virgin.net or log on to
