VOLUME 10, ISSUE 4.

April 2015

April beckons and with it Easter. Eastre (or Eostre) was known by the Saxons as the great mother goddess of the North. The Teutonic dawn goddess was known by many names including Ostara (meaning Spring), the festival of Eastre coinciding with the Spring Equinox; a time associated with rebirth and renewal.

The themes of rebirth, renewal and resurrection associated with Easter can also be found within the Christian, Sumerian and ancient Egyptian traditions as well as other within cultures based around the Mediterranean, including Aphrodite (named Cytherea, Lady of Cythera) and Cypris (Lady of Cyprus), Ashtoreth from ancient Israel, Astarte from ancient Greece, Demeter from Mycenae and Ishtar from Assyria.

Angels – Are They Real?

By Sarah Haywood

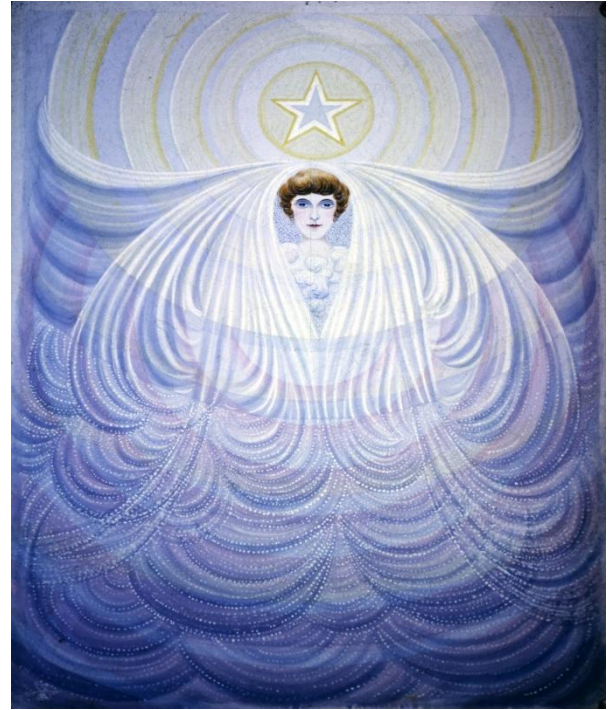

Years ago I would have been sceptical. I had never had any experience with angels or even had an inkling to bring them into my life.

Since 2011 my views and life has changed dramatically. I had an awakening which led to meditations in which my head and arms would be moved as I lay there – allowing the process – knowing deep down that it was safe. So much white light, it was an amazing experience.

Not long after I was attuned to work with angels and their energies I began to be aware of a beautiful pink light around me as I worked with people, bringing them messages and healing energies from the angelic realm.

As my relationship with them developed I was guided to channel with the angels and as a result have channelled three books all about manifesting a better world. The words in these are so powerful and exquisite that the energy of them blows me away every time I read them - such powerful messages. We are so far from living a loving life on this planet that is so possible, if only we allowed it to be.

My journey with them has also led me to do live channelling with people in groups where people have been able to ask questions of spirit – and as I mostly work with angels and those of pure mind, the answers that came back were from such a source. This is something I can do simply by tuning in. I often tune in to angels and the spirit guides to do meditations with people which are often so amazing, peaceful and full of wisdom that they leave me lost for words when it comes to an end.

For me the angels offer us the opportunity to have a helping hand whenever we need it. They have knowledge and understanding far beyond ours which when shared allows us to develop at a much greater rate, helping us to reach our potential and do the most good for others during our lifetime. They bring to us the love of God in its purest form so that we can experience it truly, reminding us of our own journey as a spirit and reconnecting us to all that exists here and beyond.

I have sometimes seen angels as colours. I can sometimes see things that flash into my mind when I am working, but generally my experience with angels is through energy and the feeling of it. It is a deep inner knowing that I am connecting with them and that they are bringing the guidance needed for whomever it is being sought.

Others who can see spirit say that my face changes many times when I work. This is always reassuring for I know myself they are there, yet there is always that little small part of me that isn't quite sure as I have not seen them. I am now confident that the angels are working with me. They are my guidance and I love them more each and every day. Angels are they Real?

I have been reading a book called Stairways to Heaven by Lorna Byrne which is fascinating. She clearly sees angels and has them helping her closely every day. She knows and sees a guardian angel with each person she meets and those around that she comes into contact with. The important thing for me is that we trust in their presence and have faith that they are there, loving us and guiding us. All you have to do is ask.

One of my friends doubted angels. She asked for a sign. She was given a white feather. She said that wasn't enough and so later more white feathers appeared. Still she was sceptical and so she asked for more proof. Later that day she turned a corner and across the road and pathway there laid thousands of feathers where a lorry had shed its load. Coincidence – maybe. Proof – that was up to her – for after all everything in life is up to us. We have our own unique perception of life and understanding. How we interpret it and live our lives is our choice. I choose to live mine with angels, to work with them, to cherish their wisdom and to share it as much as I can. For further information about Sarah's work with Angels, her books and the Spiritual Growth Academy and the Poole Positive Living Group log on to www.theangelwhisperer.co.uk.

Book Review: Who Am I? Why Am I Here?

By Patricia Diana Cota-Robles

The Company of Heaven knew extreme confusion would be part of Humanity's Ascension process. For this reason, a little over 40 years ago they asked if I would be willing to transcribe some very important information that would help people to see the bigger picture of what would be happening on Earth during the unprecedented moment we are now experiencing.

For the last 40 years, I have carefully transcribed this information for the benefit of all Humanity.

The priceless information revealed in this book will give you many "Aha!" moments. It will fill in the blanks, and it will definitely help you see the bigger picture of what is happening in your life.

The Divine Intent of this book is not only to share this priceless information with you, but also to teach you how to go within to the Divinity of your own Heart Flame where you will directly access this Sacred Knowledge from the Realms of Truth for yourself.

At long last, the answers to the questions people have been asking for lifetimes can be revealed. These profound Truths have been carefully hidden in sacred mystery schools awaiting the time when the masses of Humanity would be awake enough to comprehend them. That time is NOW!!

This book answers the following questions:

1. What is the Shift of the Ages really? How will this event ultimately transform my life?
2. Has Humanity averted the cataclysmic earth changes the prophets of old foretold would occur on Earth during these "End Times"?
3. How did Humanity get in the mess we are in?
4. What is the true story of Humanity's "fall" from Grace?
5. How did the various and often divisive world religions form?
6. What was Jesus' real mission, and how does he fit into the present unfolding Divine Plan?
7. What was Jesus' relationship with Mary Magdalene?
8. Is there a Feminine Aspect of God?
9. As Children of God, do we have a single parent or do we have a Father AND a Mother God?
10. Are all Human Beings Children of God? If so, what does that mean?
11. Are there Beings on other planets? If so, are they also Children of God, and what is their relationship to us?
12. Why is there so much pain and suffering on Earth? Can I do anything to change Humanity's misery?
13. Am I capable of transforming my life into what I want it to be?
14. Is it true that Humanity's natural Birthright is the Infinite Abundance of God? If so, how can I reclaim my abundance?

Who Am I? Why Am I Here is available as an EBook from www.eraofpeace.org
