Exploring Consciousness. The Violet Ray and the Gold

By Carol Fraser

Many people know that St. Germain is the Master of the Violet Ray, but how many know of his real mission? The Violet Ray is the ray of liberation and transformation. It is also the ray that is nearest to the primal, inextinguishable fire of the Divine Source.

In our time, among the Masters of Shambhalla who carry responsibility for the Earth, it is the Violet that is the leading and characteristic energy of our time; the Master of the Violet Ray for this epoch the King of Shambhalla. The Count of St. Germain was the reincarnated Christian Rosenkruz, and before that the Apostle John. He was the "Beloved Disciple" of Jeshua, whom the Church calls Jesus. He was the disciple who not only received the fullness of the teachings and the love of Jeshua, but who could also, out of himself, give it again. He was commissioned by Jeshua to remain with earthly evolution, incarnating in every century to bring about the full awakening of the inner divinity that is laid into each one of us as a seed-like potential. This has nothing to do with institutionalized Christianity but is the innermost teaching of all sacred traditions. Many of us today would be ripe for this inner awakening, which would bring us to a new evolutionary status, giving us a fullness of capacities and a cosmic consciousness. We would be able to come together in free communities in a higher group consciousness, in oneness with each other and with the Masters, in order to solve the problems of our Earth and ensure a new good healthy future for us all. To attain this awakening; we don't have to involve ourselves in invoking this or that energy or practicing complicated techniques sold to us by business-minded tricksters, charlatans and hijackers of humanity. The source is to be found in ourselves, in that very seed of light, our true I-AM, implanted by the Divine in early stages of our earthly evolution.

Therefore our work is to attain inner integrity, purity, truthfulness, and the unfolding of selfless sun-like love. In the course of his incarnations the apostle John has sacrificed himself and united himself ever more closely with the Divine, allowing himself to be permeated by this divine fire of love, manifest in our cosmos first and foremost for our physical gaze in the warm golden light of the morning sun. In 1996 the reincarnated St. Germain gave himself utterly into this Divine Fire of Creation and is now spiritually active in oneness, with God in the centre of our galaxy. It is this union with the Divine that I refer to simply as the Gold, and we can in purity of heart tune into this Divine power for our help, protection and spiritual advancement.

There are many purifying, health-bringing exercises to strengthen the presence of this light-seed in us, helping to awaken the god within, in order that we can fulfil our task of becoming free good co-workers and creators, in freedom and at the same time in oneness with the Divine will. A central practice, helpful to all of us, wherever we are, is to awaken ourselves regularly into the present moment, freeing ourselves from the entanglements of the past and from our preoccupation with the future. In the moment of pure „presence“ we experience the utter tranquility of beingness; then the fullness of love that pervades all of creation can flow into us. To be fully present in the moment is to touch this great love. When we are passing through or even living constantly in this Doorway of the Present, between the Pillars of Past and Future, we ourselves become a doorway to the Divine.

Cosmic Laws – The Law of Karma

The law of Karma is also known as the law of Cause and Effect. It is regarded as a fundamental cosmic law. The literal translation of Karma is "Something Done" and the law of Karma indicates that every thought, emotion or action creates an effect, positive or negative. Even neutral thoughts (ambivalence or apathy) cause effects of their kind.

Both Einstein and Newton were fascinated by the idea of natural laws, indeed Newton's third law of motion which states that "for every action there is an equal and opposite action" might be regarded as an expression of the law Karma presented in a scientific context.

Understanding the law of Karma can help us greatly as we begin to realise that through our actions in this life we build shape Karma for the next. We might then understand the meaning of the words of the Buddha: "Our life is shaped by our mind we become what we think."

The A-Z of Esoteric Man

Asoma – The non material elements in man comprising all the intangible factors that constitute the non-physical self and contribute to his existence, identity and personality during his life, and, the belief in continued existence after death.

Biorhythm – The cyclic periodicities of recurrent phases of mood and behaviour that are observed in living organisms. The rhythmic flow of energy and activity is found everywhere in nature, from the circling of the heavenly bodies, the movement of the sun, the waxing and waning of the moon, the seasons and the weather, to the cyclic biological changes in animals and men.
