VOLUME 5, ISSUE 6.

June 2010

June a month that offers a veritable feast of different events; conferences, solstice celebrations, talks, workshops, courses and gatherings.

The latest addition to the on-line lecture archive is Psyche in Transition: Travelling in to the Unkown by Anita Gregory. Raising Avalon by David Hand is the latest addition to the on-line article archive with Lamyatt Beacon by Andrew Smith the latest addition to the on-line video archive.

Cosmic Connectivity by Ambrose Whistley

The idea that humanity is part of a greater whole, part of an ocean of thought, love and universal consciousness, is a nettle that we now have to grasp if we wish to ascend to a new and higher way. The highest way is to resonate as a being of unconditional love. That is our evolutionary goal, both as individuals and as a collective human consciousness, to raise ourselves to the point where we become beings of pure love; that most light, most refined of energetic vibrations.

During this the post Atlantean epoch, human awareness has become separated from the universal ocean of thought, love and consciousness, and we have also endured a spiritual separation from our home, planet Earth. We have experienced what it is like to be disconnected in order to experience the material and this has been part of our evolutionary path. The transition we are now experiencing and the full passage in to the Aquarian age is all about reconnection, reconnection with the cosmos, Gaia and reconnection with ourselves as spiritual beings.

That we are far more than just flesh, bones and blood, with our being transcending the physical plane so that we exist within a multitude of dimensions is the great revelation of our age. We will in this generation come to know that everything is energy, everything is thought and consciousness everything is love.

2000 years ago we were shown what we would become. How ready are we to assume that mantle and become human beings of unconditional love, beings that place that highest of ideals central to our very reason for existing. Are we ready to take the longest stride of soul that man ever took, that quantum leap in consciousness?

"He that will save his life will lose it. But he who loses his life for my sake will find it." These are the words of the Christ, spoken during his incarnation as Jesus of Nazareth. They give us another clue to the magnitude of the current transition, the idea that we must be prepared to go with the flow of what comes, prepared to let go of everything we have ever known; the laws of physics (these only relate to the current energy vibration of the planet and our environment), the material and money and all religious, political, social and other structures that do not exist to serve humanity.

Our passage into the Aquarian Age is about lifting ourselves higher, out of our physical reality and we do this by uniting with those higher aspects of the self, those parts of us that have sat in another realm or dimension. Traditionally meditation has been the mechanism for connecting the lower astral bodies and those higher aspects but increasingly the dimensions are merging, ultimately to a point where we will move beyond a reliance on our senses 5 (sight, sound, taste, touch and smell) to embrace a world where we communicate telepathically and intuitively.

I met a young lady who said she could see energy in numbers. Writing down the following sequence 21122012 I asked her what she saw. "Balance" she said, "I see balance." Only when we reconnect with the cosmos, will we fully realise the extent to which our sojourn into matter has led us to exist in a state of imbalance.

Our sun is the Heart Chakra of the Universe and as such it is related to love and is the integrator of opposites in the psyche: mind and body, male and female, persona and shadow, ego and unity. "As above so below" and a healthy heart chakra within us allows us to love deeply, feel compassion and attain a deep sense of peace and centeredness. Coming to terms and balancing these aspects of the self epitomises the nature of our inner journey of transition. We must achieve inner balance if we wish to take that quantum leap in consciousness, that greatest stride of soul.

Book Review: London's Ley Lines. Paths of Enlightenment. By Chris Street

Leys are as elusive as beams of starlight. They are everywhere, you just can't see them. They may be compared to the hidden knowledge of a secret tradition, freely available to those in the know, invisible and unsuspected by those who aren't.

The ancient wisdom at the basis of leys is encoded within the land for future generations to discover anew, if they possess the vision. And those who don't will remain none the wiser. London's leys can lead you to magical places, to the soul of the city and to an understanding of the hidden unity which connects our ancient sacred sites to each other and also connects our spiritual dimensions to theirs. To our ancestors these locations were places of the gods, places of healing, places of power, places of vision initiation, inspiration and revelation.

This book does not present an objective study of leys, but the author's personal perspective which embraces the psychic, spiritual and mystical aspects of the phenomena and firmly suggests that these energy flows can be used as pathways of enlightenment and initiation. The book is available on line from www.lulu.com or by contacting the author, Chris street email; starman144@hotmail.com www.earthstars.co.uk
